Access to Justice project to kick off

With football season underway, what better than a kickoff.

That's what Memphis Area Legal Services will tee up Thursday from 5 to 6:30 p.m. -- the start of this year's Access to Justice campaign.

That will be combined with the agency's 35th anniversary reception.

The event is at the law office of Thomason, Hendrix, Harvey, Johnson and Mitchell at One Commerce Square.

Access to Justice is a joint effort of MALS, Community Legal Center, Memphis Bar Association and Tennessee Bar Association to increase pro bono work, expand access to the courts and educate the bar and the public about justice issues.
